

Title: Principal Economist

Monument Economics Group, an economic consulting firm headquartered in Washington, DC, seeks applicants for the position of Principal Economist, based in Washington, DC. With clients spanning the United States, Canada, and abroad, Monument provides clients with high-quality economic analysis and expert opinion in a number of areas related to on-going or potential litigation, especially anti-trust, consumer fraud and unfair trade practices, stock market fraud, price manipulation, economic damages, valuation, and other market analysis. Staff at Monument are relied upon by leading law firms to provide the highest quality economic research and data analyses.

Interested candidates must submit a cover letter and resume or CV for consideration. Permanent United States work authorization required.

Essential Functions and Responsibilities:

- Demonstrates exceptional analytical skills (statistical programming background preferred)
- Identifies areas of a case for development and strategizes and oversees complex analyses
- Communicates exceptionally well with clients and staff orally and in writing
- Ability to lead and work in a team-oriented environment; Effectively and efficiently manages a team of research analysts and consultants to complete all research and quantitative aspects of a case in a timely manner within budget
- Positive work attitude and an enthusiasm for applied economic research
- Attention to detail in economic research (both qualitative and quantitative)
- Participates in business development by meeting with clients and potential clients, attending professional events, and actively engaging in the economic profession

Desired Skills and Experience:

- Ph.D. in economics from a top school focused on applied-microeconomics and econometrics
- Knowledge of Stata or SAS and experience with other programming languages (Python, R, etc.)
- Five years of post-graduate work experience in economic consulting
- Expert witness testimony and client management experience preferred
- Proven record of generating revenue in economic consulting with existing client relationships preferred

Monument Economics offers a comprehensive benefits package, including company-sponsored health, dental, and vision insurance; paid leave; 401(k) retirement program which the company funds generously. Senior staff are eligible for performance-based bonuses and professional growth opportunities.

Only finalists will be contacted.